SERVICES & RESOURCES

Caledon Public Library works in partnership with Stewardship Ontario and ecoCaledon to help reduce our ecological footprint. We accept batteries, both button cell and alkaline, at all 7 branches. The Alton Bolton Branch will also accept the following items: used cell phones, print cartridges, mp3 players, adapters, portable devices and digital cameras.

There are bulletin boards and display spaces for community information at all branches.

You can pay your Caledon property taxes or pick up garbage tags at all 7 branches.

All branches have public access computers.

Free wireless internet is available at all branches.

The Centre of Equitable Library Access (CELA) is a new service which is available through your public library that provides reading materials in accessible formats to patrons with print disabilities. CELA offers thousands of resources in accessible formats, for all ages and reading levels. If you or someone you know is interested in signing up for CELA services, please email mrenkema@caledon.library.on.ca

MORE RESOURCES

eNEWSLETTER

To stay up-to-date with all that’s happening at your community library, visit our website to sign up for our monthly electronic newsletter.

PAMA/TRCA and CVC FREE FAMILY PASSES

Library patrons are invited to learn more about their community through these passes to 12 parks and/or the Peel Art Gallery Museum and Archives. And now, as an added bonus, CPL has binoculars available for borrowing at 7 branches.

REFERENCE

Looking for the next great read? Not sure what topic to choose for your next book report? Stumped on an ISU topic? Our reference experts are here to help. Call, text, email or even drop in to any branch. Send a text message to 416-828-7086

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

Caledon Public Library works collaboratively with other organizations and agencies to achieve mutual goals and enhance our expertise in delivering exceptional service to our community.

INAS

Every Tuesday | AB Branch | 10 am - 5 pm | Free

Istituto Nazionale Assistenza Società is a social assistance institution which will be offering outreach services to anyone in the community looking for assistance with applications for old age retirement pensions, disability pensions, OAS disability benefits, unemployment and more. A detailed list of all INAS services and support can be found on the library website.

DONATIONS

Caledon Public Library will gladly accept most materials in good condition. For more details and guidelines, please visit our webpage. Please note that the library reserves the right to refuse donations which it deems unsuitable to its policies and best interests.

LENDING

A CPL card is free to all who live, work, attend school or pay Town of Caledon property taxes. Cardkey tag must be shown each time you borrow materials. Caledon Public Library is excited to tell you that soon you will be able to sign up for a library card online! This temporary card will allow you to place holds, access our online databases and eBooks for a short time until you can get into a branch to pick up your permanent card! Watch for more details to follow!

BLOGS FOR EVERYONE

This interactive blog is where teens can read reviews of the newest titles, recommendations and tips on what to read next, suggestions for school projects, reports and essays. We want to hear from you too - let us know what you’re reading or would like to see on the shelves. This is your space too and the Youth Services crew looks forward to sharing it with you.

Have you ever wanted to learn a new language? Need to find ancestors for the family tree? How about a bit of homework help? Imagine having newspapers from countries around the world at your fingertips. Caledon Public Library’s digital resources offer all this and more! Need more help? We’ve launched this new blog to keep you up-to-date on all the latest and greatest digital resources offered through Caledon Public Library.

KIDZ KORNERS

Welcome to the junior book blog! This is where you’ll read blogs, posted by the Youth Services Department, about all the new titles as well as some old favourites. We want to hear from you as well - this is the place to share your love of reading.

WRITERS’ INK

A blog where members of all Caledon Public Library’s Writers’ Ink chapters are encouraged to share their work. Look for it under Adults on our website.

TEEN READS

A blog where members of all Caledon Public Library’s Teen’s Ink chapters are encouraged to share their work. Look for it under Teens on our website.
